MURK ADMITS DEFEAT AND ASKS MEDIATION.

Moslem Army Retreats to the Very Gates of Constantinople.

Although Stamboul Is Under Martial Law, Crime Runs Riot Unchecked and It Is Feared the Hordes of Defeated Soldiers Will Turn Their Guns and Bayonets Against the Authorities.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 3.—The Porte has applied to the powers for mediation with a view to the cessation of hostilities and for the negotiation of peace. Application has been made to the empires here and by circular to the Ottoman representatives in the European capitals.

The Turkish army is retreating to the last line of fortifications outside the capital.

This was announced in the first bulletin admitting defeat in the great battle which the government issued tonight.

The Greeks have captured Preveza, a fortified town in Epirus, on the north side of the entrance of the Gulf of Arta. Greek troops entered the town at 4 o'clock this afternoon. About noon the Greek blockading squadron sent two gunboats, cleared for action, into the harbor.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 3.—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle.

Foreigners and natives are suffering from tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege, crime in many quarters is unchecked. Many families are leaving the city. The people are in a state of panic, and the streets are filled with refugees. The Turkish army is retreating to the last line of fortifications outside the capital.

The Greeks have captured Preveza, a fortified town in Epirus, on the north side of the entrance of the Gulf of Arta. Greek troops entered the town at 4 o'clock this afternoon. About noon the Greek blockading squadron sent two gunboats, cleared for action, into the harbor.

The presence of foreign warships is of the greatest importance and would be the surest guarantee of the security of foreign interests and public order generally. The government has made more severe the state of siege; strong patrols circulate through the streets, and police have been increased.

The battle still continues on the point of Thrace and if the Turkish soldiers fall back within the gates of the city it is feared they may turn their guns and bayonets on those who are cutting here the outcome of the war.

There is a large and unruly element of the population which would be glad of any pretext for massacre.

THROWS AWAY REAL MONEY.

Gentleman With Joy Scatters
Coins Between Milwaukee and Chicago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edmund Dischacht, on his way to Chicago from Seattle, Wash., on a Chicago and Northwestern Railroad train, gave away $25 to fellow-passengers. When they refused to take more of his money, he threw $55 out of a window. His actions aroused the suspicions of William Haven, the conductor, who notified the police on the train's arrival here and Dischacht was taken to the Des Plaines-street station. When searched, a bank book showing deposits amounting to $377, was found in his clothing. He will be held at the station until he is over his joyousness and then will be released. According to Haven, the money was thrown away between Milwaukee and Chicago.

A Certainty.

TAFT AND HADLEY SAYS TRIBUNE.

LATTER CERTAIN TO BE NAMED FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Death of Congressman Utter Breaks House Deadlock in Favor of Wilson Should the Election Be Thrown into Congress by No Candidate Receiving Majority.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] The Tribune will say tomorrow: "Taft and Hadley will be the ticket for which every Republican voter will cast his ballot on election day. President Taft favors the selection of Gov. Hadley for second place on the Republican ticket, and as an almost-out of the twenty-five members of the Republican National Committee thus far heard from, favor Hadley, while others have indicated or are known to stand ready to vote for the choice of the President, his nomination by the National Committee is assured."

"Chairman Hilles will also lend his influence to the Missouri Governor so that nothing further is needed to insure Gov. Hadley's nomination."

"Only the physical impossibility of getting the National Committee together and the illegality of proxies by telegraph prevent the assembling of the formal polling of the members and the nomination of Gov. Hadley."

President Taft pointed out today that he urged the availability of Gov. Hadley for second place four years ago, when a compromise with the "stand-pa" faction of the party ultimately resulted in the nomination of the late Vice-President Sherman.

The death of Congressman Utter has broken the House deadlock in favor of Wilson. In case the election is thrown into Congress.

Gov. Hadley is declared by friends to be willing to accept the Republican Vice-Presidential nomination.

GIFT BY RYAN.

Wealthy Virginian Donates Magnificent Church to Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament in New York.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The new church of St. Jean Baptiste, now being completed in this city at a cost of one million dollars is the gift of Thomas F. Ryan to the fathers of the Blessed Sacrament. This announcement was made today by Father Letellier, superior of the order, and the church of St. Jean Baptiste, now being completed in this city at a cost of one million dollars is the gift of Thomas F. Ryan to the fathers of the Blessed Sacrament.

The old church of St. Jean Baptiste located on East Sixth street is widely known as the Church of Miraculous Cures. To its shrine thousands of crippled and suffering Catholics made pilgrimages and the crutches and surgical appliances abandoned by them form a large collection which is exhibited at the church.

The announcement says the new church will be one of the largest and most imposing Catholic structures in America. It will seat 3000 persons and will be built in the shape of a Latin cross with three naves, two twin towers and a great dome. The towers will be one hundred and fifty feet high and the dome one hundred and eighty feet.

Mr. Ryan has taken personal interest in the work of the Society of the Blessed Sacrament. He built and endowed its seminary at Suffern, N.Y., where many young men are trained for the priesthood. Fifteen priests from this seminary will be required at the new church of St. Jean Baptiste.

KAISERIN IS SHOCKED.

Almost Fifteen Thousand Divorces in Prussia in One Year, Showing a Considerable Annual Increase.

[By Atlantic Cable and by Wireless from Chicago to the Times.]

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The Kaiserin, who is intensely religious and most domestic, was shocked and grieved the other day on reading of the increase in the number of divorces granted in Prussia.

There was an increase of 715 in the number of divorce applications over last year and 14,600 were divorced.

Rojas Is Camping at Pacheco and Drives Refugees Across Border.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 3.—Three days desultory fighting was required before the Federals were able to force the rebels to abandon the hills so near Cuernavaca, capital of the State of Morelos, that the government cannon could be heard there.

The series of small engagements ended last night with slight losses. Gen. Angeles personally directed the federal operations.

Revolutionists in the neighboring States of Mexico hold possession of small towns in the southern section.

Rebels activity on the west coast of Guerrero has greatly increased. Atoyac and Tepic are said to be occupied by insurgents.

ROJAS DRIVES REFUGEES ACROSS THE BOUNDARY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 3.—Refugees arriving here say conditions remain unsettled below the border at this point. Antonio Rojas has about 500 rebels camping in the American section of the border.

The refugees, who came from the various Mexican colonies and other American settlements in the Casas Grandes district, were compelled to move overland to El Paso.

RECONSTRUCTING RAILWAY.

Work was begun today in reconstructing the Mexico-Northwestern Railway, on which road rebels have burned sixty bridges between Juarez and Casas Grandes.

American railway officials agreed to attempt to rebuild the road again on promise of Gen. Fructo Aubert that full protection would be given. The first work train to depart was guarded by 150 federal soldiers. All railway traffic below this point has been paralyzed for nearly a month.

GUILTY OF KIDNAPING
TWO AMERICANS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 3.—Charged with kidnaping two Americans on American soil and delivering them to a foreign army, in the charge of which Ramon Nunez stands convicted, the jury of a District Court here last night recommended a sentence of four years.

The conviction may tend to bear out the claim for $50,000 each of Lawrence Converse and Edwin Blatt against the Mexican government for their detention by Mexican Federal troops in the Juarez jail just prior to the capture of the town by Madero's revolutionists last year. Nunez was charged with kidnaping the young Americans near Tornillo, Tex., and delivering them to Gen. Navarro.

HURRICANE DAMAGE
AT ACAPULCO HEAVY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO (Cal.) Nov. 3.—Telegrams from Acapulco received today report much damage done by a hurricane there yesterday. The little steamer Cora Belle and nine iron lighters were sunk, over 1000 tons of coal being lost. The wharf was damaged and the coal shed and packing house went down. Buildings in different parts of the city were unroofed.

So far as known, there was no loss of life. The cruiser Maryland which is at Acapulco will attempt to raise the sunken lighters.

FARLEY IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Recently Crooked Cardinal Brings Message of Good Will From Head of Catholic Church.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] His Eminence Cardinal John Farley, bearer of a message of good will and kindness to the Pacific Coast from the head of the Roman Catholic Church at the Vatican, arrived in San Francisco last night.

With the head of the Catholic Church in America were a number of ecclesiastical dignitaries, who accompanied him in his private car across the continent, and on the last stages of his journey the secretaries of Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco boarded his train to extend him the welcome of the Bay cities.

A little, kindly, white-haired man, leaning upon a black cane, Cardinal Farley breathed in manner rather than in words the blessing and benediction which his presence brings to all humanity of whatever creed throughout the West.

HINGED JAWS PROVIDED.

Medicos Perform Job that Is Overlooked by Dame Nature.

[A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—A remarkable operation that has resulted successfully in a local hospital on a 14-year-old boy who since birth had been unable to move his jaws. The facts became known today. From the time of his birth it had been necessary to feed the child through a tube, the jaw bones were stiff, having no normal "hinges." The surgeon cut through the solid bone where the joint should have been, and modeled upon the sections actual joints, such as nature usually provides. The child has left the hospital and now has the normal use of his jaws.

SIXTEEN ARE DROWNED.

Waves Exact Heavy Toll when Steamer Goes on Rocks in Lake St. Louis.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—During a storm Friday night the steamer Cecilia, which plied between Montreal and Valley Field, was hurled on the rocks and sank at Isle Perrot, in Lake St. Louis ten miles west. At least sixteen people were drowned, the lost comprising men, women and children; only four passengers were saved, all men.

Narrow Escape from Death Indicated by Scalp Wound.

Governor Refuses to Take Anesthetic and Never Winces Under Surgeon's Needle—How the Election News Will Be Received at Cincinnati, Beverly, Princeton and Sagamore by the Presidential Candidates.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

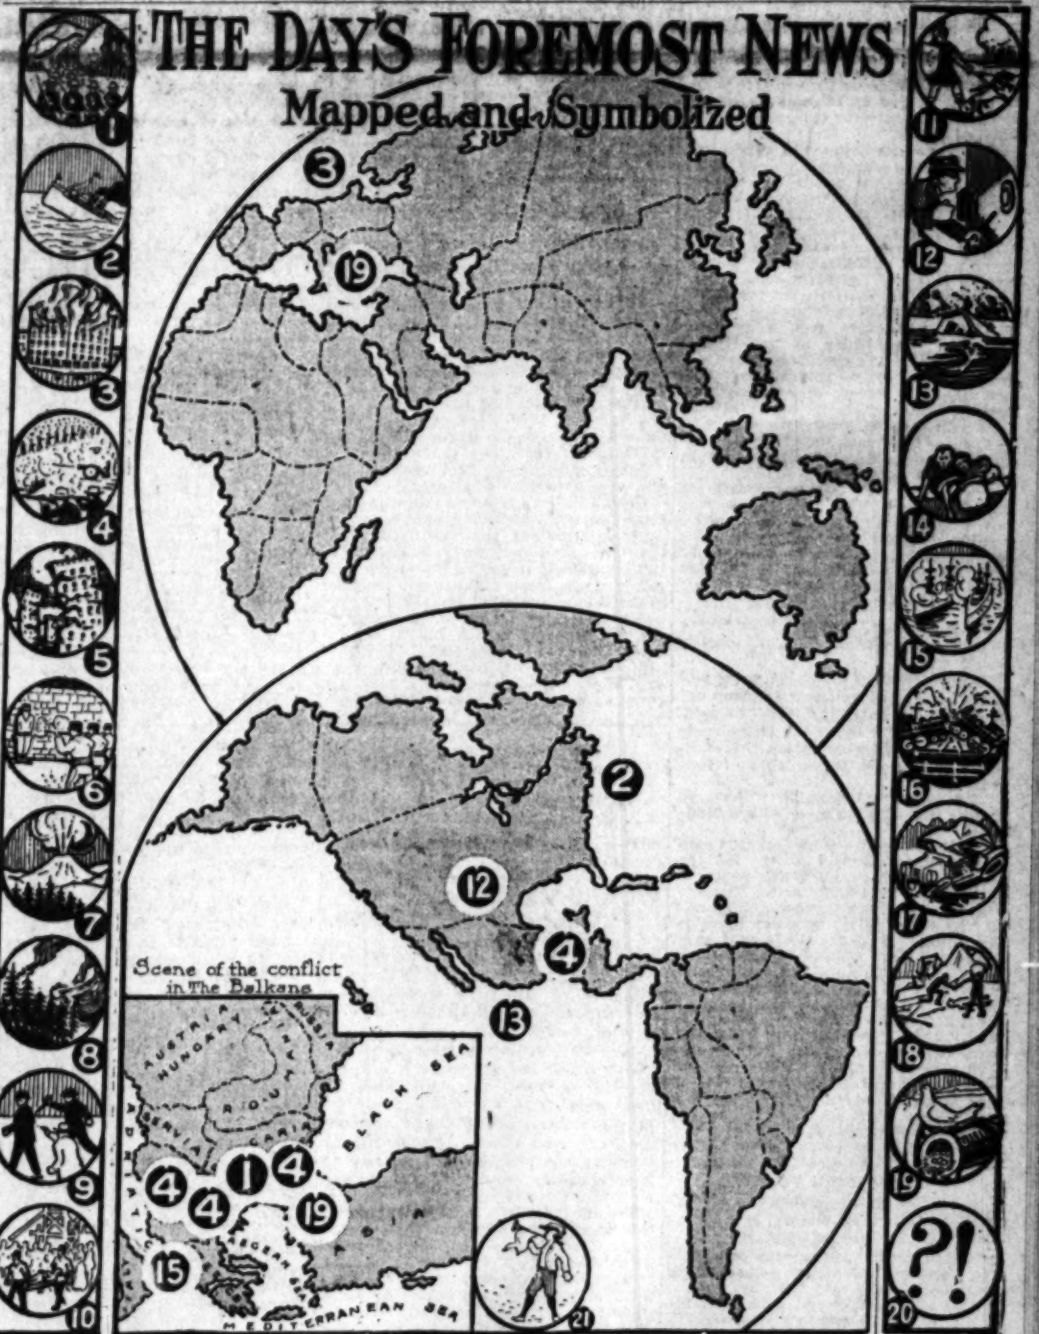

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On the eve of the election, the Democratic Presidential candidate, Woodrow Wilson, had a narrow escape from death in the dark morning hours today while speeding home to Princeton from Hightown, N. J. The automobile he occupied struck a rough ridge and Gov. Wilson was thrown forward with such violence that a four-inch wound was cut in his scalp. With blood streaming from his wound he was taken to the nearest surgeon. The injury is not serious. President Taft attended church in New York. He will hear the election returns at the home of his brother at Cincinnati, O. Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft will receive the news at Beverly, Mass. Col. Roosevelt and family will hear the returns at Sagamore Hill, and Gov. Wilson and family at Princeton, N. J. The managers of the three great parties each claim victory for their candidates, but there are many indications that unless the election is thrown into Congress, that the Democratic candidate will be elected. There seems to be little doubt that the next House of Representatives will be Democratic, but a battle royal will be waged on Tuesday for the control of the United States Senate in those States in which legislators will be elected to choose Senators.

PRINCETON (N. J.) Nov. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] On the eve of the election, Woodrow Wilson narrowly escaped death at Hightown, N. J., today in an automobile accident. The Democratic candidate is at his home here nursing a four-inch scalp wound extending from above the right ear to the top of his head. Expert surgeons shaved Wilson's head, drew the wound-cut skin together, cementing the edges with collodion, reinforced by a bandage of absorbent cotton. The Governor refused to take an anesthetic, undergoing the painful treatment without even a grin.

Early this morning, Gov. Wilson was riding in his automobile from Red Bank, N. J., to this city. It was still dark as the big limousine car sped through the square of Hightown and bumped a ridge where the road was recently mended and bricked. The candidate's head hit one of the iron supports at the rear of his seat with fearful force. Blood gushed over his clothing. He remained quite calm and when the car righted itself, directed the chauffeur to drive to the home of Dr. George Titus, who with Dr. H. George Franklin, treated the wound. Wilson then rode home, where he is

Sunday a Day of Quiet in Political Camps.

All Parties Are Confident on Election Eve.

McCombs Says Wilson Carries
Forty States.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Sunday was a day of comparative quiet in the presidential campaign.

President Taft, remaining in New York on his way from Utica to Cincinnati, conferred with National Chairman Hughes, State Chairman William Barnes and other political advisers.

The day brought forth no changes in plans, and no important developments. Forecasts issued by Senator Dixon, Progressive chairman, and William F. McCombs, Democratic chairman, reiterated their predictions of Saturday as to the outcome.

Each manager expressed the confidence held by his committee in victory. At the respective headquarters, desks were cleared up, clerical work was brought to an end and preparations were made for dismemberment of the big organizations tomorrow.

The Republican Vice-Presidential situation occupied much attention. Reports were current that an attempt was being made to sound out Republican sentiment throughout the country as to a satisfactory choice for the place.

BARNES'S STATEMENT.
William Barnes, Jr., on leaving President Taft's apartments at the Manhattan Hotel, made the following statement:

"The Republican battle has been carried on in this campaign in the interest of sense and intelligence, of government, and straight thinking. The candidate for Vice-President to be nominated by the National Committee ought to be a man who fits in with the meaning of the party. I think John W. Wamamaker is such a man. I hope he will be nominated at the meeting of the National Committee on November 12."

Senator Dixon, Progressive national chairman, today said that the Progressive fight for Congress that began in 1911, will be inaugurated at a Progressive National Convention in Chicago in December. Senator Dixon will issue a formal call tomorrow for the December meeting of the Progressive party organization.

In addition to the members of the National Committee, said Senator Dixon, "I am also inviting to participate in the conference all chairmen of the different Progressive State committees, and all candidates for the Progressive party for Governor, in the various States."

The forecasts from the respective national headquarters gave in some detail the factors which the leaders believe will be decisive in Tuesday's voting.

McCOMBS'S FORECAST.
"Wilson and Marshall will have the largest majority of electoral votes given to any candidate since before the Civil War," said Chairman McCombs in the Democratic forecast.

"They will receive also the largest popular vote ever given a political party in the history of the United States. They will carry the vast majority of the forty-eight States, and are likely to carry all of them. A unanimous vote in the electoral college will not surprise any one who has seen the confident reports to the Democratic national headquarters in the last days of the campaign."

Congress will be Democratic in both branches. The lower house will not contain more than 100 of the combined opposition and the Senate will be Democratic by a large margin. The Democrats will gain more than the ten seats necessary to wipe out the Republican majority."

WHAT DIXON SAYS.
Senator Dixon, national Progressive chairman, predicted, Col. Roosevelt would win.

"Approximately 9,000,000 votes will be cast for Roosevelt and Johnson out of a total vote of 15,000,000. At the same time, the Democratic vote will be approximately 10,000,000. The final result will be a landslide for the Democrats."

TAMMANY'S VIEW.
Tammany Hall joined in the prediction of Democratic victory, in a statement put out by Charles F. Murphy.

"Never were Democratic prospects brighter and Democratic expectations more confident," said Murphy.

"All our reports and canvasses indicate a great Democratic sweep in the States and in the Congress. The Empire State will give the Presidential and State tickets splendid majorities. Its Democratic representation in Congress will be substantially increased and both branches of the Legislature will be Democratic."

Clown Held for Murder Jokes and Sings in Cell.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Indifferent to his crime—the murder of his benefactor—Charles Conway, the one-legged circus clown, spent a happy day in his cell at the Thirty-fifth street police station today. He joked and laughed until he was tired; he sang songs and told stories picked up during his career as a clown in a fourth-rate circus. He ate with relish and slept soundly.

Jail attendants and policemen, accustomed to capture prisoners, commented on his indifference.

His only allusion to the murder of Sophia Singer, to which he confessed Saturday, was a boastful declaration that he had "stuck by the kid," meaning his wife, Beatrice Ryall. "I guess Sophy won't teach my wife to hustle on the streets now," he is reported to have said. "I stuck by the kid to save her honor. I guess I won't regret it."

TELLS STORY OF HER LIFE.
The emptiness of his excuse was shown by Mrs. Conway herself in a story of her life told to a reporter in her cell at the same station. She admitted that she had smoked cigarettes since she was 15 years old. She ran away from home when she was a girl. For a while she lived with her mother in luxurious apartments in hotels. This luxury ceased when her mother met a tragic death in a hotel in Ontario, Can.

Mrs. Conway said: "I just grew up and always did as I pleased."

Conway's cheerfulness was maintained in spite of severe pain, he suffered throughout the day from a leg. An ambulance surgeon, Dr. Russell, examined it during the morning to see if gangrene had set in. He advised the substitution of the leg. He is expected to plead guilty when arraigned tomorrow in municipal court on a charge of murder. Whether wires from the great news-gathering associations already have been installed in the home of the President's brother, additional lines have been strung to the house by the big telephone companies, and there will be an abundance of telephone wires to carry the news.

AT BEVERLY.
Mrs. Taft, the President's wife, and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Taft, will not be with him to share in the victory or to console in defeat. They will be at the President's summer home in Beverly, Mass., on election night.

Those about the house will be his brother and family, and their friends. Maj. Reed, the President's aide, Carmi Thompson, secretary to the President, James Sloan and Richard Jarvis, the service men who guard the President, and W. W. Mischler, the President's stenographer.

As he did four years ago, the President will study the returns diligently. He will make frequent calls in the room set aside for the telegraph and telephone operators, glancing over their shoulders as the returns flash in from the various States.

His assistants will be in frequent communication with headquarters in New York. Chicago and many of the large cities, where party leaders will be quick to forward cheering news, or reluctantly tell of defeat.

WILSON AT PRINCETON.
In the quiet college town of Princeton an interested group will gather in the home of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, eager for the returns and confident that before daylight on Wednesday they will be congratulating the one-time president of Princeton University upon his elevation to the Presidency of the United States.

That Gov. Wilson will sit up until he learns whether he is still only a Governor or has suddenly become a President is doubtful. He has manifested a surprising lack of curiosity as to the final result and has taken little interest, apparently, in the arrangements which have been made to forward him the news by the press

There will be exciting moments in each of these three households when the early returns show that the votes are swinging in the balance.

The "terse words" of "Illinois has gone for Roosevelt." "Wilson sweeps New York," or "Taft carries Pennsylvania," will carry cheer and confidence to one home and dismay to another. Hope and despair will alternate in the early returns, but unless the three-cornered fight so complicates the situation that the outcome hangs in doubt much longer than usual the drift of the returns will soon become manifest. After that will be only a matter of piling the cheer—or disappointment.

HALF MILLION SETTLEMENT.
Fortune for Children of Prince Who Are Also Grandchildren of Late Baltimore Millionaire.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—A settlement of $500,000 on Gaston Degard de Bearn and Beatrice de Bearn, children of Prince Henry de Bearn of France and grandchildren of the late Rose Winslow, Baltimore millionaire, went on record yesterday in the Orphans' Court, here.

The settlement will come partly out of the $500,000 left under the will of the late Rose Winslow, daughter of a Newport (R.I.) innkeeper. Miss Bateman, it is understood, consented to receive a smaller share in the estate and because of this and other settlements no litigation is anticipated.

The children of Prince de Bearn, whose wife was the late Beatrice Winslow, were not mentioned in the will of their mother, because of the estrangement of Mr. Winslow and the prince, growing out of the latter's action in contesting his wife's will.

GIBBONS PREACHES SERMON ON PRESENT-DAY POLITICS.

Catholic Prelate Delivers Address on Election Eve Concerning the Duty of Citizens in Dealing With Public Questions, but Does Not Indicate His Choice of Candidates.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—Cardinal Gibbons, in the Cathedral here today, delivered an election eve sermon designed to awaken "the supine citizen who never takes an interest in the political welfare of his country." He declared that if the future historian is called upon to record the decline and fall of the American republic, he will ascribe as the cause "the indifference, lethargy and political apostasy of her own sons."

The sermon was non-partisan as to the personal preferences of the Cardinal toward the three conspicuous candidates for President. He asserted his intolerance toward pessimistic prophets, who each campaign predict the end of the government unless their favorite candidate is elected, and by a discussion of our form of government sought to show that the results of our election cannot seriously affect the endurance of the republic.

By a wise provision of the Constitution of the United States political authority is not concentrated in one individual, or in one department of the administration, he said, "but is judiciously distributed so that the balance of power may be preserved. Our general government consists of the executive, the legislative and the judicial branches. If anything goes wrong with any one of these departments, the evil is checked by the others, and usurpation of power is prevented."

SHIP OF STATE.

"Now our government is often called a Ship of State. This great Ship of State is divided into forty-eight minor States. Each of these States may be said to be waterproof, in the sense that the engulfing of one would not involve the sinking of the other. California, for example, might be overwhelmed by the waters of a political revolution without disturbing the neighboring States of Washington, Nevada and Arizona. The safety and permanence, therefore, of our republic largely depend on the autonomy of the several States, without the danger of absorption by the general government. Should our government and legislators ever become the subservient creatures of the Federal government they would be mere puppets, subject to the will of the Chief Executive. They would cease to be waterproof and would share the fate of the Titanic."

"But the survival of the American republic must rest on a more stable foundation than the patriotism of our citizens, the genius of our statesmen and the wisdom of our laws. It must have a stronger basis than fleets and dreadnoughts and standing armies; for the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong. Our enduring stability can be secured only under the abiding protection of the Lord of Hosts."

STRIKING CONTRAST.

"And happily for the nation this humble recognition of a superintending power has been upheld from the dawn of the republic to our own time. What a striking contrast we present in this respect to our sister republic across the Atlantic, which once bore the proud title of 'eldest daughter of the church.' The leaders of the French Republic are so far carried away by the tide of unbelief that they studiously eliminate the name of God from their official utterances. How different is the conduct of our leaders and statesmen! They have all paid homage to the moral governor of the world. All the Presidents of the United States, from George Washington to William Howard Taft, have invariably invoked the aid of our Heavenly Father in their inaugural proclamations. It is also the edifying custom of our Chief Magistrate to invite his fellow-citizens to assemble in their respective places of worship on the last Thursday of November, to offer thanksgiving to the Giver of all gifts for the blessings vouchsafed to the nation. Both houses of Congress are daily opened with prayer. And all important civic and political conventions are inaugurated by an appeal to the throne of grace. God's supremacy is also recognized by the observance of the Christian Sabbath throughout the land."

"It is my profound conviction that if ever the republic is doomed to decay, if the future historian shall ever record the decline and fall of the American Republic, its downfall will be due, not to a hostile invasion, but to the indifference, lethargy and political apostasy of her own sons."

"And if all citizens are bound to take an interest in public affairs, that duty especially devolves on those who are endowed with superior intelligence and education and who ought to be the leaders and exemplars of the people, guiding them in the path of political rectitude."

The Difference between an Optimist and a Pessimist is usually a BANK ACCOUNT

There's nothing like a healthy bank account to keep you happy. The knowledge that your present and future financial needs are satisfactorily taken care of will give you a brighter outlook on life, a more joyful and peaceful existence.

Don't say: "A bank account is impossible for me." If thousands upon thousands of people can afford to save part of their salaries you can do the same, no matter how much your earnings are. We have many regular customers who deposit as little as $1 a month—even this small sum soon attains satisfactory proportions when saved regularly.

Our "TERM SAVINGS" account is the easy road to financial comfort. This account pays 4% interest, compounded every six months. So you see it is not only the money you actually save that enriches you, but this same money is all the time working for you and increasing your balance.

Decide now that you're going to take a part of this week's pay and deposit it in this strong, efficient bank. New accounts are opened at Window No. 2—to your right as you enter our building on Spring street.

Mr. Wad Finds Out What the Twelve-Pound Look Is From Mrs. Ethel Barrymore-Colt!

DOWN THE LINE WITH HARRY WILLIAMS

AFTER a careful study of third base and third basemen I have come to the conclusion that no one else plays the position as well as Harry Williams. A player who will do anything like this will never be a third baseman. The third baseman must be a player who will do anything like this will never be a third baseman. The third baseman must be a player who will do anything like this will never be a third baseman.

Another thing I have noticed is that the third baseman who uses both hands to put the ball on the runner is a much more frequent sight than the player who goes after an opponent with one hand. The third baseman must be a player who will do anything like this will never be a third baseman.

Another thing I have noticed is that the third baseman who uses both hands to put the ball on the runner is a much more frequent sight than the player who goes after an opponent with one hand. The third baseman must be a player who will do anything like this will never be a third baseman.

Another thing I have noticed is that the third baseman who uses both hands to put the ball on the runner is a much more frequent sight than the player who goes after an opponent with one hand. The third baseman must be a player who will do anything like this will never be a third baseman.

But all this time there were other subtle influences at work calculated to curdle my disposition. Formerly, when the delivery boy called and deposited a package of oat meal on the back steps on a bleak and rainy day I would sit down in front of the cook stove and weep copiously over his unhappy condition.

The milkman, the laundryman, the man who cleaned the chimney and the one who propelled a push cart with a grating attachment and sharpened the family scissors—any of these could tear off a large hunk of sympathy when I happened to be around.

Night after night I would lie awake extending sympathy for these people. I was getting to be one of the best sympathizers in the entire community. Show me a working man, and I could sob at first sight, while a clear cold head, denoting sorrow, would form on the end of my nose on the slightest provocation.

But all this has changed. My disposition, once warm and sweet, and flavored with the milk of human kindness, is now cold and clammy filled with elation.

CHESS NOTES.

The subjoined game, contested in the third Southern California correspondence tournament, resulting in a drawing position after an interesting phase of the gambit employed, brings the score of George A. Hart up to 7 1/2 points won and 2 1/2 lost, while R. A. Hazen has scored 6 wins and 3 losses, thus reducing slightly his chances of tying for first place.

MILLER HUGGINS TO REPLACE BRESNAHAN.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—Miller Huggins, second baseman on the St. Louis National team, has agreed to confer with the club management with a view to assuming charge in place of Roger Bresnahan, recently deceased. It is not known what offer will be made, but as Huggins has been tendered the management of the Cincinnati club at a salary of $1750, it is expected the local owners will exceed that offer. Bresnahan received $10,000 and had a contract calling for 10 per cent of the club's profits.

WINTER BALL IN OAKLAND.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—Oakland defeated the All-Stars in the morning game here today, by a score of 5 to 3. Four Oakland scores were made in the sixth inning. The last two innings were not played, on account of rain, which also prevented the afternoon game.

The score: All-Stars, runs, 3 hits, 5 errors, 2. Oakland, runs, 5 hits, 3 errors, 1. Batteries: Lind and Wachob; Ferraris and Hoffman. Umpire, Bacon.

COUNTRY CLUB GOSSIP.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

That shy, retiring little soul who arbitrarily fixes handicaps down at the Los Angeles Country Club is condescendingly himself with his usual modest, deprecating manner upon the result of Saturday's sweepstakes. It certainly is a shining example of judgment, but such new evidence of the kind that crops up makes the tyrant's reign more terrifyingly secure.

The winners of the day were J. S. Hunt, 12 down, 12 handicap, even; C. H. Knappa, 7-7 even; Maurice E. Ginn, 5-5, even—all of whom tied for first, second and third place and settled the question amicably in the usual short, decisive manner; Thomas McCall, 10-2 down; C. A. Henderson, 3-7-2 down; George J. Kuhrt, 14-12-2 down, and B. S. Parsons, 6-4-3 down, came next in glory.

There was a very good field which included A. N. Davidson, H. A. Barclay, C. W. Pendleton, F. N. Coffin, Thomas Bundy, A. C. Jones, James C. Henderson, J. C. Nevin, L. D. Sale, R. H. Ingram, David Barry, B. J. Williams, Edward Tufts, Walter Colby, R. H. Cook, J. E. Cornett, A. L. Schwartz, George Steckel, L. T. Bradford, Judge Frederickson, Jack Jevna, E. H. Seaver, and any number of others who did not enter the sweepstakes.

The fall tournament. An exciting match was played off yesterday morning between Dr. Spinks and E. J. Williams in the semi-finals, the latter winning by 1 up. He went out in 43 and came in in 45-73, and this for a man who could model a golf ball is a very good record. He will be a force to reckon with during the coming season. He will now meet the bush champion, Jack Jevna, in the final, the latter having defeated J. E. Cook, who had previously won from Henderson by default, by 4 up and 1. Jevna has been showing off with 17-4 lately, so the match with Williams should be a good one.

The second flight. In the second flight the finals now rest between Shirley and Parsons. Mr. Shirley accounted for Mr. Smith in his match by 3 up and 1, and Mr. Parsons defeated Walters by 3 up and 2.

Socially. Things were just a wee bit dull. That is to say, in the dining room, where it is understood one desires to be regarded as "stylish," the grill was not so lively enough of course, some eighty golfers all dining and talking at once. But no one would dream of calling them so-called. However, Mr. and Mrs. Avery McCarthy and their daughter, Miss Alleen, kept the dining-room in countenance by the selection of a fine party, wherein was Bruce McNeil, among others. Mr. and Mrs. Stitt also played golf to half a dozen friends and a few superlative tennis men, as Charles Hopper and Harold Bailey, elected to be properly dignified. You can't be dignified in the grillroom, you know.

Annandale Country Club. There have been very festive times at Annandale for the past few days, what with Halloween high jinks, sorority carnivals, mid-week golf tournaments and the like. Thursday saw Judge M. T. Allen the hero of the golf tournament, in which he won an impressive looking cup of dishonor.

At Redlands. They tell me both Raymond Hornby and Morris Phillips have been showing good form up at Redlands lately, that 7's and 7's are not unusual feats for either of them. Of course, you know Morris Phillips is the club champion, don't you? That long-postponed finals with Gregory Palmer was played off some time ago and the result was 5 up and 2—in extremely warm weather. So Morris Phillips has to some extent justified his reputation, after all. It was awfully quaking to continually hear what a fine player he was, but never to have more than a crumb of evidence to back it up. O. H. Koch won last week's sweepstakes with a gross score of 83 on 11 handicap—Gregory Palmer's 79 proved to be the best gross score. At all events things would appear to be waking up a bit at Redlands and we shall hope to see the season in full swing soon. Gregory Palmer has been playing in the sweepstakes on 5 handicap but his latest form has warranted reduction to 4. Mr. Koch, the winner still also appears to be waking up a bit at Redlands and we shall hope to see the season in full swing soon. Gregory Palmer has been playing in the sweepstakes on 5 handicap but his latest form has warranted reduction to 4. Mr. Koch, the winner still also appears to be waking up a bit at Redlands and we shall hope to see the season in full swing soon.

Art Shaffer will not play with the Oxnard club next Sunday. He intends to go north to see the "big game," on the steamers Thursday. He will ship his new car up and expects to take a run down to Stanford on Friday.

The week of shocks and thrills to offer for the patrons of the Majes-here. Fair perennial, flamboyant stage among ever-blooming melodramas, what would the innocent play-going world do without it?

We say it again and again in our days of over-education, and we go to do it now that we have grown wiser, if not better, with an enjoyment which is half humorous and half serious. Blessed be the day of renewal. Thanks be to the majestic, can keep a heart soft enough to enjoy it all through.

What does he care if the villain is blacker than the devil was ever painted? So much the better for the audience. What if the lovely though illustrate heroine sports a pair of more vicious than Hamlet's? What if the hero is a prig so noble that he ought to be as liked into a semboance of humanity? These and thus only have the heroes and heroines of melodrama always been, and they must remain so to the end of time. If you don't like them that way, go to see some plays—and enjoy yourselves in peace.
